Information about product price on demand

This is the bag for the professional rescuer. A spacious central compartment with dividers made of high density foam bands, covered in nylon, suits all necessities. On the inside of the top flap, two rows of elastics allow placement of different accessories. The side pockets, closed with a protected nylon covered zipper, are different because one can contain all intubation supplies including a laryngoscope, while the others can contain phials thanks to the elastic loops.
