

AC15/3 - Arthroscopy Model of the Shoulder

Order code: 4101.AC15/3

Information about product price on demand

Parameters

Quantitative unit

ks

- A new model for learning the techniques involved in arthroscopy simulating operation on the shoulder joint, biceps tendon and joint capsule including the rotator cuff
- The functional shoulder joint can also be used for demonstration
- Natural size
- Model comprises soft skin and muscle covering in which the shoulder joint is situated complete with ligaments and capsule
- Skin can be removed to show complete shoulder anatomy
- The optional Clamp can be used to secure model to bench or table top for arthroscopy practice